MEDICINAL.

Take
Simmons
Liver
Regulator
One Dose
WORTH
100 Dollars

DEAR L. R. FRIENDS: I consider one dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite; had the blues and felt generally out of sorts. I resorted to blue pills, but they only obtained temporary relief. One dose of L. R. B. did me more good than the $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Respectfully, T. C. MARKLEY.

I have been a teacher for twenty years and during that time I have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid liver, and I have been entirely cured by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character that it was not to interfere, in the least, with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons' Liver Regulator.

The Harrisonburg Muddle.
To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: There is a beautiful fight going on over the postoffice of the thriving town of Harrisonburg; as the ladies say "it's perfectly lovely." The republicans are divided amongst themselves and the democrats are chuckling with unconcealed delight.

It seems there were three applicants for the position. A. P. Funkhauser, who was the candidate of Mahone and was backed by the former political idol of Rockingham republicans, Judge Paul; D. S. Lewis and Jas. Sullivan, who represent the kickers.
Sullivan was the former postmaster here and was removed by Cleveland. He and Lewis were supposed to be in league—if one got the position the other was to be first assistant and vice versa.

Funkhauser was generally thought to be ahead in the race, with Lewis close at his heels, both men having influential friends in these respective wings of their party. But recently it has been known that Sullivan was endorsed by Geo. Roller, whose principal claim to consideration and renown consists in the fact that he was overwhelmingly defeated for Congress last fall by Col. Chas.
O'Ferrall. Roller, several weeks ago, stole a march on Mahone and Paul and urged the President the immediate appointment of Sullivan, in recognition of his, Roller's, distinguished services to the party in this district. So it came to pass that the citizens of Harrisonburg were amazed to learn one fine day that Jas. Sullivan had been appointed postmaster. Great was the wrath and consternation of the Mahoneites and the citizens generally were surprised and disgusted. Funkhauser is thought to have been very badly treated, though it is said his application for the position had never been brought before the President or Postmaster General, which helps to account for the President's complaisance to Roller.

The object of the latter, who is known to have aspirations for future and greater honors, was to appease the kickers and secure their support for himself. A personal grudge against Lewis, the other and more acceptable kicker candidate, prevented Roller supporting him. A side light is thrown on the General's motives by the rumor, generally believed, that one of his brothers is to be Sullivan's first assistant at a salary of $1,000 a year.

A few days ago Roller and his candidate were thrown into consternation by a summons from the Postmaster General to come and answer to grave charges which had been brought against the latter. Then there was "hurrying to and fro and swearing and hot haste." Roller and Sullivan started off to Washington armed with the written certificates of fifteen or twenty "prominent republicans" of the kickers' wing, of course, to the effect that Mr. Sullivan was a high-toned Christian gentleman of strictly temperate and moral habits, a man without fear and without reproach.

The charges are supposed to have been brought by the friends of Funkhauser, investigated and perhaps led by the redoubtable Paul himself; their nature has not been made public.

Whatever they were, the affidavits of the prominent republicans aforesaid seem to have sustained their hero, for the virtuous Sullivan telegraphed back to them that he had "beaten the mud slingers," and received his commission. It is reported that "Cheap John" said to some republicans who expressed to him the dissatisfaction of Judge Paul, that he regretted that so distinguished a republican as Paul—a man whose services, etc., etc.—should be displeased at the appointment of the postmaster of his own town; he didn't think it worth while (to mention the dissatisfaction of the democrats, that the charges brought were very grave, that the regulations had their weight, that, in fact, he had no further time to waste on the cr; he could not and would not reconsider the appointment; "if the people of Harrisonburg are dissatisfied they have only themselves to blame," and proceeded to deliver a brief Sunday school lecture on the importance of citizens of this great and glorious country selecting and endorsing the best men. "The responsibility of appointments rests with the people, and not with the administration." A tolerably neat way of removing this blame of the appointment from his shoulders to Boller's.

So the matter rests. It is well known that Mahone and Paul are warring, and it is thought that Boller has over-reached himself and cooked his political goose. The democrats look on serenely; they can stand it for four years.

For all diseases of the kidneys, bladder or urinary organs use Finney's Compound Syrup of Buchu, a positive and speedy cure for the following symptoms: Pain in the back, back, insomnia, nervousness, muscular weakness, vertigo, dizziness in the head, dropsical swellings existing in men, women or children, weakness arising from various abuses. As a blood purifier it has no equal; it eradicates from the blood, through the kidneys, all uric acid and other poisons, leaving the skin smooth and free from all eruptions.
